

Costed evaluation plan – Libya – UNICEF country programme of cooperation, 2023–2025

The table draws from the Integrated Monitoring and Evaluation Plan to cover present evaluations planned for the duration of the programme cycle. Additional guidance on financial resources for evaluation is outlined in the revised evaluation policy of UNICEF (E/ICEF/2018/14).

| Evaluation title | United Nations Sustainable Development Cooperation Framework (or equivalent) outcome | UNICEF Strategic Plan, 2022–2025 Goal Area and outcome statement | Criteria used for selection | Intended use of evaluation findings | Expected start date (month and year, or year only)* | Anticipated cost and provisional source of funding (regular resources (RR), other resources (OR)) in United States dollars |
|---|---|--|--|---|--|---|
| Evaluation of the UNICEF Libya response to COVID-19 | United Nations Strategic Framework for Libya, 2019–2022. Outcome 3: By late 2020, relevant Libyan institutions improved their capacity to design, develop and implement social policies that focus on quality social services delivery for all women and girls, men and boys (including vulnerable groups, migrants and refugees) in Libya towards enhancing human security and reducing inequalities. | It will contribute to evaluate UNICEF work in Goal Areas 1–5 and its work on emergency preparedness. | A major evaluation focused on shifts and adaptations to all programme components and cross-cutting areas of the country programme in responding to an emergency/global pandemic. | Identify lessons learned and determine the effectiveness of the response to strengthen emergency preparedness. Strengthen donor accountability. | January 2023 | 150 000 (OR) |
| Evaluability assessment of the UNICEF Libya country programme | Not applicable. | It will contribute to programme and operational effectiveness. | A comprehensive programme assessment that seeks to determine the results that can be demonstrated based on programme documentation and the monitoring systems established. | The evaluability assessment will strengthen results-based management and monitoring systems to ensure results for children. | January 2023 | 50 000 (OR) |
| Evaluation of UNICEF interventions on youth vulnerability and resilience in southern Libya (recovery, stability and | United Nations Sustainable Development Cooperation Framework (UNSDCF), 2023–2025 Outcome 3.1: By 2025, people in Libya, including the most vulnerable and marginalized, benefit from | It will contribute to evaluating UNICEF work in Goal Areas 2 and 3. | Limited evaluation focused on: (a) an essential pillar of the country programme; (b) programme implementation; | Using the baseline and formative evaluation (to be undertaken in 2023) as a starting point, this end of programme evaluation will allow UNICEF to establish programme, relevance, | June 2024 | 150 000 (OR) |

| Evaluation title | United Nations Sustainable Development Cooperation Framework (or equivalent) outcome | UNICEF Strategic Plan, 2022–2025 Goal Area and outcome statement | Criteria used for selection | Intended use of evaluation findings | Expected start date (month and year, or year only)* | Anticipated cost and provisional source of funding (regular resources (RR), other resources (OR)) in United States dollars |
|---|---|---|---|--|--|---|
| socioeconomic development in Libya – Phase 2) | improved, equitable, inclusive, and sustainable social protection and basic social services. | | (c) programme replication for scale-up during Phase 2 of the programme. | effectiveness, efficiency and sustainability. The results will be used to scale up key interventions and help to inform improve programme delivery. | | |
| Country programme evaluation | UNSDCF, 2023–2025 Outcome 1.2: By 2025, people in Libya participate in and benefit from a more peaceful, safe and secure society, free from armed conflict and underpinned by unified and strengthened security, justice, rule of law and human rights institutions that promote and protect human rights based on the principles of inclusivity, non-discrimination, and equality in accordance with international norms and standards. Outcome 3.1: By 2025, people in Libya, including the most vulnerable and marginalized, benefit from improved, equitable, inclusive, and sustainable social protection and basic social services. Outcome 4.1: By 2025, all people in Libya, including the most vulnerable and marginalized, have increased | It will contribute to evaluating UNICEF work in Goal Areas 1–5 and on the cross-cutting areas of priority in humanitarian action. | Major evaluation focused on: (a) review of programme implementation; (b) programme replication for scale-up responding to major humanitarian emergencies in the context of the humanitarian-development-peace nexus approach. | Inform decision-making on the strategic direction of the country programme, focused specifically on the effectiveness, efficiency, relevance, impact and sustainability of the country programme in the evolving political and humanitarian context. | January 2024 | 20 000 (RR) 80 000 (OR) |

| Evaluation title | United Nations Sustainable Development Cooperation Framework (or equivalent) outcome | UNICEF Strategic Plan, 2022–2025 Goal Area and outcome statement | Criteria used for selection | Intended use of evaluation findings | Expected start date (month and year, or year only)* | Anticipated cost and provisional source of funding (regular resources (RR), other resources (OR)) in United States dollars |
|---|--|---|---|--|--|---|
| | resilience to the impacts of climate change, water scarcity, and environmental degradation. | | | | | |
| Evaluation of UNICEF interventions for children on the move | UNSDCF, 2023–2025 Outcome 1.2: By 2025, people in Libya participate in and benefit from a more peaceful, safe and secure society, free from armed conflict and underpinned by unified and strengthened security, justice, rule of law and human rights institutions that promote and protect human rights based on the principles of inclusivity, non-discrimination, and equality in accordance with international norms and standards. Outcome 3.1: By 2025, people in Libya, including the most vulnerable and marginalized, benefit from improved, equitable, inclusive, and sustainable social protection and basic social services. | It will contribute to evaluating UNICEF work in Goal Areas 1–5. | Limited evaluation focused on: (a) programme implementation; (b) programme replication for scale up during Phase 2 of the programme; (c) responding to major humanitarian emergencies in the context of the humanitarian-development-peace nexus approach. | Strengthen cross-sectoral programming around children on the move, with a particular focus on contributing to sustainable solutions. | February 2025 | 150 000 (OR) |
| Total resources | | | | | | 20 000 (RR) 580 000 (OR) 600 000 (Total) |

* The UNICEF Libya Country Office will provide technical support for the development of national evaluation capacity ($50,000).